Supplies & Tools

- 3/4 yard of Bow, Wow, Meow fabric
- 3/4 yard of second Bow, Wow, Meow fabric
- Sewing Machine
- Needle and coordinating thread
- Scissors or pinking sheers
- Pins and iron
- Paper, pencil, and ruler for pattern

Directions

1. Create a pattern to use for your bandana with a 1/4" seam allowance. Size of bandana can vary depending on the size you would like to make.
  - A. Draw a 5.25" by 10.25" rectangle.
  - B. Measure down 2.25" on one side of the square and draw a diagonal line to opposite end point.
  - C. Cut out pattern making sure to cut on the new diagonal line. You want your pattern to look like half of a flag and not a square.

*Measurements can vary depending on what size you would like to make your bandana.
2. Place pattern on the fold of the fabric, making sure the long edge opposite the diagonal is on the fold. Pin down and cut out. Repeat with the second fabric.
3. Pin both pieces with right sides together and stitch leaving a 1" to 2" gap at the top of the bandana.
4. Turn the bandana with right sides facing out and slip stitch the hole closed.
5. Fold over the top of the bandana toward the second color fabric, pin, and stitch across to create a pocket to slip over the dog collar.
